

Eurasian Security and Geopolitics

EVRN 420 / GEOG 571 / POLS 689 / REES 480
Pres-session assessment

11 Sep. 2008, 1:00-2:15, AIC

Slavic & Eurasian Studies Dept.
519 Watson Library (Level 5)

Jon Giullian 864-8854 giullian@ku.edu
Geoff Husic 864-3957 husic@ku.edu

TR Smith Maps Collection
Scott McEathron 864-4662 macmap86@ku.edu

1. How many years have you been at KU? Less than 1 1+ 2+ 3+

2. Which languages you know? Indicate level of proficiency. Advanced Intermediate Novice

	Advanced	Intermediate	Novice
a.
b.
c.

3. Please describe your research interests for this course (countries, conflicts, events, topics, etc.) related to Eurasian security.

4. Please describe your experience using KU Libraries' collections and services in your coursework.

5. How confident do you feel using the Library Catalog? Please explain.

6. Have you ever used Worldcat? If yes, please describe to what extent.

7. Have you ever used KU Libraries' Interlibrary Loan service? If yes, please describe to what extent.

8. Which article databases have you used before? How frequently? To what extent? Describe how proficient you are using each one.

9. Have you ever used RefWorks, Endnote, or Reference Manager? If yes, please explain.

10. What online media do you use to keep abreast of current events worldwide?

11. Do you use RSS feeds to track current events? If so, please describe.

12. What do you need the most help with? (You may choose more than one option.)

- How to use the library catalog?
- How to locate books on the shelf in Watson and/or Anschutz libraries?
- How to use article databases?
- How to identify the most relevant article database for the subject area?
- How to formulate an effective search strategy?
- How to effectively manage your sources, citations, and bibliography?
- How to find content on the World Wide Web related to international security issues?
- How to use RSS feeds to keep abreast of current events?